Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight and Tuesday; light to fresh southerly winds.

THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY.

With the exception of a short piece of track over the bridge that crosses the tidal basin outlet at the foot of 14th street, Washington, the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon railroad is double tracked between Spring Park, at the west end of this city, and the station at 12th street and Pennsylvania avenue, Washington. The greater part of the line was double tracked about two years ago, but where the railroad crossed above the Columbia pike, in Alexandria county, there was a single-track bridge. Within the past month another steel bridge has been thrown across the county road and the double tracks were connected, making them continuous between Alexandria and Washington. Work is in progress for double tracks across the new concrete bridge over the tidal basin, and it is expected that they will be in use within the next six weeks. It is also proposed to extend the double track across Hood's run, on the confines of this city, and then down Cameron street to connect with the present line on that street, thus giving practically a solid double track from the Columbus street station to the station in Washington.

The Secretary of War on Saturday notified the electric railway company that they would be allowed until December 1, 1907, to change the system from overhead trolley, now in use on the Highway bridge across the Potomac to the underground system, and that the company will be required to give bond in the sum of $70,000 to insure the completion of the work by that time.

FUNERAL OF MR. AITCHESON.

The funeral of George P. Aitcheson, who died last Friday morning, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence, 411 Duke street. The interment was in St. Paul's Cemetery. Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons and Mount Vernon Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, attended in a body. The casket was followed by an escort of eight members from the Old Dominion Commandery, Knights Templar. The floral tributes were profuse. Among them were designs sent by the Masonic Relief, of Washington; the Navy Yard Band, and the employees of the navy yard, and the bachelor friends of the deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church, assisted by Rev. Joseph Sevier, of the Second Presbyterian Church. The pallbearers were William P. Taylor, Charles H. Callahan, Mr. McKnew, of Washington; David Aitcheson, Wallace Lindsey, and R. P. A. Johnson. The escort from Old Dominion Commandery included Peter Astreky, John H. Trimyer, Robert F. Downham, Henry K. Field, William L. Allen, James E. King, A. A. Paul, and Peter T. Harrington. At the grave the rites of the Masonic order were performed. The funeral was also attended by the members of the Friendship Veteran Fire Association and the Bachelor Club, of which organizations Mr. Aitcheson was a member. Apart from the members of these organizations many other friends and acquaintances of the deceased joined in the cortege.

U. S. COURT.

[Judge Edmund Waddill presiding.] Judge Waddill reconsidered his intention of not holding the July term of his court here this week and opened the court this morning. However as there was so little business he decided that no jurors be summoned. Besides the judge there were present U. S. Attorney Lewis, Clerk Bowden, Deputy Clerk Garnett and the other court attendants.

E. Hilton Jackson vs. R. S. Matthews; case continued.

The criminal cases were disposed of as follows:

John Steiff, of Fairfax, charged with breaking open a mail box, not prosecuted, he having already served three months in jail.

B. Brannon, of Culpeper, charged with breaking open a mail box; information filed and case continued.

Jas. Elmore Williams charged with forging a money order at Manassas; case continued till tomorrow.

Ashby Williams charged with securing a registered letter at Arlington by means of forgery; bail forfeited and capias issued for his arrest.

Court adjourned till tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

No important cases, it is said, will be tried at this term.

LUNA PARK NOTES.

The baby show that was scheduled to take place at Luna Park Saturday afternoon last, because of the bad weather was postponed until Tuesday, July 2d, on which date it will take place at the time and place originally stipulated; namely, the park's dancing pavilion, between the hours of three and five.

Lincoln Beachey and his marvelous airship will make frequent flights from the park commencing July 3d. This most novel of all attractions will be retained for a matter of ten days, which will extend its season to July 12th.

On the night of July 4th the most costly display of fireworks ever ignited in a park south of New York will be ignited and set off with the pomp and patriotic ceremony the day calls for.

Another feature that will unquestionably attract attention the current week as the Ader Trio, noted for their dexterous skill as premier club jugglers.

At the commencement exercises of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., on June 26th, the honorary degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon Mr. William Bowie for "distinguished progress in his scientific work." Mr. Bowie took the degree of B. S. at Trinity in 1893, and of C. E. at Lehigh in 1895, since which the above degree was conferred. In 1899 Mr. Bowie married Miss Elizabeth Wattles, of this city.

Mr. Leo T. Downey, who recently graduated in civil engineering at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, and who has been visiting his uncle, Mr. James T. Hartley, in Richmond, has returned to his home in this city. Mr. Downey graduated with high honors, being third in a class consisting of five hundred students at the Blacksburg Institute.

MR. LUCKETT SHOOT HIMSELF. Mr. Raleigh F. Luckett, about 27 years of age, a brother of Joseph E. Luckett, of the Columbia Theater, shot himself about 11 o'clock this morning, at the Garrick Club, at the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 14th street, Washington. Whether or not the act was intentional is not known. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital.

Mr. Luckett a few years ago married Miss Gertrude Harlow, of this city, where he is well known. They have one child—a little son. Recently Mr. and Mrs. Luckett separated and it is intimated that this may be the cause of the shooting.

After the shooting Mr. Luckett was removed to the Emergency Hospital, where an operation was performed and where he now lies in a critical condition.

Mr. Luckett went into the club seeming in excellent humor, and asked for a small drink of whisky. He then passed through the rooms until he reached the reading room overlooking the avenue.

A moment later a pistol shot was heard and he was found seated by the reading table, with the pistol beside him. He had sent a bullet through his right breast. He gasped, "It's all over, send for Joe," repeating this several times.

Mr. Luckett was cashier at the Adams Express Office in Washington.

DUDLEY'S JOLLY ETHIOPIANS. All lovers of good singing, good music, good dancing and good, clean, wholesome fun will undoubtedly all see S. H. Dudley's Jolly Ethiopians at the old fair grounds all this week. The Jolly Ethiopians, for the most part, are members of the great "Smart Set Company" on a summer tour, of which Mr. Dudley is the star. They represent the most extraordinary aggregation of performers ever assembled for a summer show.

All the necessary accessories for a metropolitan production are carried by the Jolly Ethiopians. The company carries its own band and orchestra, led by Wm. A. Bayard, a capable and brilliant musician. Their mammoth tent is entirely waterproof and performances will be held rain or shine. The company arrived in this city this morning and gave a parade. They also gave a concert at the intersection of King and Royal streets at 12:30 o'clock.

STRIKE OF BRICKLAYERS. The Bricklayers' Union of Washington, which is admitted by both sides to hold the key to the present labor troubles in that city, will remain firm in the stand taken at last Thursday night's meeting, when it voted to call a strike on all buildings where union men had been locked out and replaced by non-union workers. The bricklayers will give their support to the affiliated trades and continue as a part of the Building Trades Mechanics' Council. Both sides to the present controversy, which has developed into a general open-shop issue have fought hard for the support of the bricklayers, the trades trying to get them in as an active factor and the Employers' Association trying to keep them out and inactive.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many presents. The newly-married couple will spend their honeymoon in Philadelphia and Atlantic City and will be at home, 325 North Pitt street, after July 6th.

He was brought before the Police Court this morning and committed to jail for examination.
